Models

In-between releases of large models, the smaller ones are sometimes overlooked. That they are worth a look is proven with the new Volvo L90H from Motorart ...

Welti-Furrer, a transportation company known worldwide, bought a Saurer M8 in the 1940s. The all-wheel drive tractor truck developed 120 hp. AFM is building this model from a time when heavy-duty transports were still an adventure ...

Current

In the second part of our series on how to correctly load and secure model loads, Thorge Clever explains the legal ramifications and we demonstrate how this works ...

Also continuing is the series with our special civic engineering diorama. This time, sheet pilings and rammed piles together with the required machinery are the main focus of the story by author Markus Lindner ...
